

EXECUTIVE SUMMARY – February 2022

Calendar Mix. There was no change in the calendar mix between February 2022 compared to February 2021. METRO would have expected a neutral impact to ridership in February 2022 relative to February 2021 due to calendar mix.

Calendar Mix – Holidays There were no observed holidays in February 2022 and February 2021. Although President's Day occurred in both February 2022 and February 2021, METRO offered regular weekday service for February 2022 and did not offer service in February 2021 due to a winter storm. As a result, METRO would have expected a positive impact to ridership in February 2022 relative to February 2021 due to holidays.

Weather. There were five weather days in February 2022 compared to four weather days in February 2021. Although there were more weather days in February 2022 compared to February 2021, February 2021's weather impact caused METRO to suspend all METRO fixed-route service beginning at 7:00PM on Sunday, February 14, 2021. METRO did not operate service on Monday, February 15, 2021 through Wednesday February 17, 2021 due to the winter storm. On Thursday, February 18, 2021, due to the winter storm, METRO operated Core Routes only between 10:00AM and 4:00PM. On Friday, February 19, 2021 METRO did not operate Park & Ride service, due to the winter storm. February 2022's weather impact did not result in any services being suspended. As a result, METRO would have expected a positive impact to ridership in February 2022 relative to February 2021 due to weather.

COVID-19 . The Harris County COVID-19 Threat level was RED from February 1-23, 2022 and changed to ORANGE for the remainder of the month on February 24, 2022. During February, the Harris County COVID-19 threat level was ORANGE. Combined with METRO's elimination of social distancing passenger loads, METRO would have expected a positive impact to ridership in February 2022 compared to February 2021.

Service Disruption. There were no service interruption days in February 2022 compared to twenty-eight days of scheduled service interruptions on the legacy RED rail line in February 2021. METRO would have expected a positive impact to ridership in February 2022 compared to February 2021 as a result as a result of service disruptions.

Special Events. There were four days of the Houston Livestock Show and Rodeo in February 2022 compared to zero special events in February 2021. METRO would have expected a positive impact to ridership as a result.

Special Levels. There were more revenue hours of service on both local and Park and Ride services in February 2022 than in February 2021. With more revenue hours of service, METRO would have expected a positive impact to ridership in February 2022 relative to February 2021.

In-Person Schooling. In February 2022, local private, and public schools, colleges, and universities were open for in-person classes. In-Person classes were open on a limited basis in February 2021. METRO would have expected a positive impact to Ridership as a result.

Return To Office. Two of METRO's largest pre-COVID-19 RideSponsor firms, Chevron and Kinder-Morgan, had employees return to the office on select days of the week during February 2022. As a result, METRO would have expected a positive impact to ridership in February 2022 compared to February 2021.
